Take the first step toward thrift: save a little of this week's pay, depositing it in the Bank of Hawaii. After this first step the weekly walk to the bank to deposit more will be a welcome jaunt.

Iced coffee, a most refreshing summer beverage. Serve with cream, sugar and plenty of ice. Our coffees are especially adapted for this use. Henry May & Co., Coffee Roasters. Phone 1271.—advertisement.

A visit to the millinery parlors of Miss Power, Honolulu's leading milliner, in the Boston block, will convince you that better hats, distinctively adapted to your particular style, are possible at a fair price.

With the moulting season on, you need expert advice concerning your hens' welfare. It is the business of the California Feed Co. to advise you according to your needs. Ask them, Corner Alakea and Queen streets.

Typists have found that Kee Lox carbonos do better work and for a longer time than other brands. That means a saving in office expense. And savings in expenses are helpful these days. Get Kee Lox at Arleigh's on Hotel street.

You can make eight delicious cups of coffee with the Westinghouse electric percolator, and percolating commences in two minutes. Thus you get extra rood coffee made in the proper way. The percolator costs but $8. at the Hawaiian Electric Co., phone 3431.

For the best results with pictures you need the Kodak Metal Tripod, shade, for color-value pictures in the shade; for color-value pictures with a ray screen; for pictures not taken in strong light. Ask the Honolulu Photo Supply Co. to explain why you need the tripod.

The Ideal Clothing Co. makes an announcement of interest to every man in the community. It is to the effect that a one week's special sale will be held at their store, commencing to day, of men's trousers. Men of every age and of every size need an extra pair of trousers. It is certain. And at this store on Hotel street, opposite the Manhattan restaurant, this extra pair can be obtained at a price much lower than usual. See the bargains!
